Ex-Convict Seized As Man Who Held Up Burlingamites

San Bruno police today washed up a junior crime wave with the arrest of George Oliviera, 24, and James Colosimo, 21, both of whom were lodged in the county jail on felony counts.

Oliviera, ex-convict from Honolulu, confessed two robberies and four automobile thefts in a month's time, Chief of Police William Maher said. Colosimo admitted stripping one of the stolen cars and peddling the accessories.

Oliviera was arrested by Chief Maher yesterday in San Bruno. He made a complete confession, involving Colosimo, who was arrested at his home in South San Francisco. Oliviera left Honolulu three years ago after serving three years of a five-year sentence for automobile theft. Maher said. Until September he was enrolled in a CCC Camp near Mariposa.

On Oct. 5, Chief Maher said, Oliviera held up Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cohen of Burlingame on a San Bruno street, forced them to take him to Skyline Blvd., robbed them of about $3 and made them walk back. Their car was recovered in San Bruno.

Oliviera confessed to a $6 robbery the same night, but Maher said he had no report of the incident.

On Oct. 17, according to the confession, Oliviera stole a Ford coupe belonging to Don Schutz, Lomita Park; on Oct. 26 a Chevrolet sedan belonging to Harold Ireland, San Bruno, and on Nov. 5 a Buick roadster belonging to Harry Irwin, San Francisco.

He likewise confessed another automobile theft in South San Francisco Oct. 5.

Two of the machines were hidden in a willow-covered area of South San Francisco and stripped. The Buick was recovered by San Bruno police near California Golf Course. It had not been damaged.

Colosimo and Oliviera both gave confessions to Dep. Dist. Atty. Louis B. Dematteis this morning. Colosimo was booked as an accessory to grand theft and with receiving stolen property.

Oliviera faces one charge of robbery and three counts of grand theft.

Mrs. Ross Bequeaths Estate to Husband

To her husband, Hall C. Ross, Mrs. Julia B. Ross, who died Oct. 31, willed her estate except for her jewelry, which she left to her daughter, Betty R. Sugg, and 18 shares of stock in the First National Bank of Redwood City which she bequeathed to her granddaughter, Nancy Lee Taylor.

This was disclosed late Monday when the will of the former Julia Beeger was filed for probate in Redwood City. Her husband, Redwood City attorney who resides in Hillsborough, was named executor. Value of the estate was listed at merely "in excess of $10,000."

LOMBARD-GRANT ROMANCE HERE

A poignant romance between Carole and Cary highlights the vital marital drama, "In Name Only," triple-starred hit with Kay Francis in the third stellar lead. Now playing at the Redwood Theater with a first-run Western starring George O'Brien in "Timber Stampede."

CHILDREN'S QUARREL OVER ESTATE BRINGS DISCLOSURE WILL BURNED

A quarrel among the seven children of Frank Madonna, Half Moon Bay rancher who died in 1937, over the division of his estate resulted in the disclosure in superior court on Monday morning that his will had been burned.

Miss Adelia F. Madonna, eldest of the rancher's five daughters, admitted on the stand that she destroyed the will about two weeks ago. She said she had been instructed to do so by her late father with the understanding that a gift deed had replaced it. By the deed Madonna gave his 800-acre ranch to his seven children, and it since has been operated by the two sons, Frank and Quillico.

The two sons secured a court order Oct. 28 directing the daughters to produce the will, but after the hearing the petition was dismissed without comment by the court.

Atty. J. E. McCurdy, representing the sons, contends that the gift deed concerned only the real property, whereas the will, dated May 13, 1931, made specific bequests of $250 each to two grandchildren, and gave the personal property to the two sons. Included in the personal property, according to McCurdy, were $3800 in cash, livestock and equipment on the ranch.

Atty. H. J. Jepsen, representing the daughters, testified on the stand that he had seen the will and that he had caused copies to be prepared. He identified one of the copies as "true and correct."

McCurdy announced his intention of asking the superior court to probate the destroyed will. Jepsen said he would resist the action.

Meanwhile Jepsen filed a petition for the partition of the ranch among the seven children, or for its sale and distribution of the proceeds.

The daughters, in addition to Miss Adelia F. Madonna, named executrix in the will, are Mrs. Della Gardner, Mrs. Hazel Colwell, Mrs. Geneva Winther, and Mrs. Linda Johnston.

Modernistic Store Opens

Modernistic, streamlined, and boasting the latest in facilities, the Fifth Ave. Grocery and the Fifth Ave. Beauty Salon, located at Fifth Ave. and Middlefield Rd. Redwood City, formally will open their doors to patrons today and tomorrow.

Adjoining the salon-grocery building are two equally modernistic apartments, one of three rooms, the other of four. The building, constructed by the Atkinson Realty Co., is one of the few modernistic constructions of its type in this vicinity, according to Mrs. L. J. Atkinson, one of the builders.

It is of white stucco, with contrasting blue trim, and further enhanced by neon lighting and signs.

Proprietor of the grocery is Mrs. Isabel Schoux, who has operated a grocery on Fifth Ave., just across the street from the new store, for six years. Larger and roomier quarters for a constantly increasing business made the new and larger building essential.

Adjoining the grocery will be the beauty salon, operated by Miss Irene Morrell of East Palo Alto. Miss Morrell has been connected with one of the oldest Palo Alto beauty shops for the past two years.

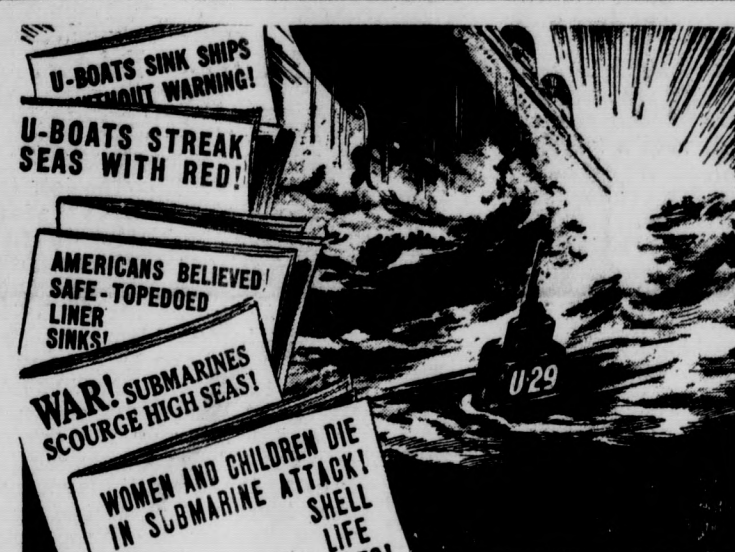

Both the salon and the grocery store will have the latest in facilities. The former has been decorated in antique ivory and maroon, with streamlined booths, leather and chromium chairs. The grocery has the latest in serve-self facilities, and will carry a full stock of meats, ready cut, and groceries and vegetables.

Retired Contractor Is Taken by Death

Death came unexpectedly early Tuesday to Frederick C. Danman of 15th Ave., Alhambra, a resident of this city since he retired from the contracting business 17 years ago. Although Mr. Danman, who was 76, had been in ill health, his death was sudden.

Mr. Danman, a native of Germany, was the husband of Mary Elizabeth Danman; brother of Bertha Martha and Wiltham Danman of Germany; brother-

FROM HEADLINES TO SCREEN

From today's screaming headlines, today's screen attraction at the Fox Sequoia Theater derives its story, "U-Boat 29," with all the thrills and spectacle of the sea raiders at work. "Fast and Furious," starring Franchot Tone and Ann (Maisie) Sothern, completes the show.

Whole Orchard Blooms at Home On Warwick Street

Although many claims of freak-blooming trees were put in the shade of Mrs. Sadie Tuxford's 2-year-old apple tree Saturday, when she announced that the 5-foot tree had bloomed five times and borne fruit four times this year, Mrs. Lillian Dunkel of 303 Warwick St. has more quantity to offer.

She disclosed today that in her yard a navel orange tree is in bloom (prospective November brides, take notice!), as are a lilac bush, a Hawthorne tree, and a palm tree, and that a fig tree is budding already.

"I always thought that Redwood City was a fine place to live," Mrs. Dunkel declared. "If we can have trees blooming in the year 'round, it will be even better."

Mrs. Blanche Hopkins Is Taken by Death

A five-week illness ended in death Monday for Mrs. Blanche Hopkins, Sequoia High School secretary and wife of the late George Hopkins, for many years park superintendent for the city of Redwood City.

Mrs. Hopkins passed away at 8:30 a. m. at Palo Alto Hospital, where she had been confined since undergoing an operation. She had been employed at the high school for nearly three years, since Mr. Hopkins' death Nov. 20, 1936, and previously worked at the school for a number of years.

Mrs. Hopkins, who resided on Acacia Ln., was the mother of Donald A. Kirtland of Eureka and Mrs. A. W. Gentry of Pasadena and the sister of Dorothy Kreitman of Oregon. She was a native of Union, Ia.

Public Offices To Close Again

With the election behind them, citizens of this area turned their attention today to the celebration of Armistice Day Saturday.

In Southern San Mateo County, all roads will lead to Menlo Park where a parade, barbecue, program and dance will be presented.

As a prelude to the day, Redwood City Post 105, American Legion, will stage its annual Armistice Ball in Foresters' Hall Friday night, beginning at 9 o'clock. Union music will play.

For banks, city and county offices, title companies and other firms, Armistice Day will be the second holiday of the week, emphasizing the day.

12 TROPHIES OFFERED FOR PARADE ENTRIES

Twelve trophies have been provided for award to the outstanding units in the Armistice Day Celebration at Menlo Park Saturday. The awards will be on the basis of parade appearance and will be made at the conclusion of the ceremonies at Camp Fremont Memorial Park.

The following are the classifications: bands; first and second for floats; first and second for drum corps; first and second for drill teams; largest veterans' marching unit; first and second for junior units; novelty group; and mounted unit.

Plays having enjoyed a holiday on election day. On Saturday, barber and beauty shops in Redwood City will close also, as will the Redwood City Post Office, all windows being closed and no deliveries being made.

A special invitation has been extended to all World War veterans who trained at Camp Fremont to attend the 1939 celebration of Camp Fremont Reunion at Menlo Park on Armistice Day. It is hoped that a division in the parade may be formed by this group.

Headquarters will be established in the building at the corner of El Camino Real and Santa Cruz Ave. and veterans are requested to register. Information concerning the day's events will be available to them, and identifying badges supplied.

Latest additions to the parade, which will move promptly at 11:30 a.m., include a battalion of the 65th Coast Artillery, the Stanford ROTC and the San Mateo County Mounted Sheriff's Posse. Floyd D. Granger of Redwood City is in charge.

Bicycle Law Enforcement Is Planned

Boys and girls who ride bicycles in Redwood City had better learn the law regarding their operation and observe all the rules in the future!

Acting on directions of the city council, Police Chief C. L. Collins has ordered all his officers to see that the law was strictly enforced.

Principal provisions of the recently-enacted ordinance are that:

Bicycles must not be ridden on the sidewalk.

Not more than one person may ride a bicycle.

Cyclists cannot hold onto moving vehicles such as autos or trucks.

Bicycles ridden at night must be equipped with a headlight and either a taillight or reflector.

All bicycles must be registered at the police department, cost of registration being 50 cents.

All traffic laws applying to automobiles must be observed. Included are observing stop signs; making signals when turning; keeping on the right side of the street and not turning around in the middle of a block.

Violation of any of these laws makes a bicycle rider subject to arrest.

In directing Police Chief Collins to enforce the law, councilmen pointed out that the ordinance was enacted for the safety of the bicycle riders themselves.

American motorists appear to be driving smaller cars than they did in 1937, and motorists' taxes, doubled in the past 10 years, may be responsible, it is stated.

of this portion of the big celebration.

At the conclusion of the parade the ceremonies at Camp Fremont Memorial Park will take place. Immediately following this will be the barbecue for parade participants and distinguished guests. During the afternoon there will be many entertainment features and the day will end with a dance starting at 9 p.m.

A number of trophies will be awarded to the several parade units. It is also planned to have a display of relics of the wartime camp at the headquarters building. Every effort is being made to visualize to the veterans the aspects of old Camp Fremont.

Housewife Pays $100 In Driving Charge

Doris Chandler, housewife living at 335 Valota Rd., Woodside, paid $100 to Judge Edward I. McAuliffe Monday on a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor. She was arrested Oct. 21 by Sgt. Manfred Walzberg of the State Highway Patrol.

John B. Patterson, Newark, paid $5 and Phillip M. Rice, Los Angeles, $2.50 for speeding.

Charges of speeding 70 miles an hour, filed against John A. Rankin of Los Gatos, were dismissed when Harold Varni, arresting officer, failed to appear in court with a signed complaint.

MENLO PARK NEWS

ELECTION VOTE HEAVY

MENLO PARK—The election on Tuesday brought out the largest vote in the history of Menlo Park, a 90 per cent vote being polled. This may be accounted for by the interest taken by the citizens in the Ham and Eggs question and the local bond issue. The former was badly beaten while the bond issue was a tie vote, 751 for and 751 against.

As a two-thirds vote was required to carry the bonds, it may be seen that there was a marked opposition against the proposition.

The election was very orderly and properly conducted by an expert board of election officials.

Menlo Parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West, has postponed its card party scheduled for Nov. 16 to a date in December to be named later.

Local duck hunters are securing the limit frequently at the marshes and on the bay. Last week there was a big flight of wildgeese from the north that provided good sport to hunters.

No geese have yet appeared on account of the fine weather, no doubt.

Miss Eloise Rahtie, the pretty daughter of Mrs. Mary Rahtie and granddaughter of the late Mrs. William Stanton, was united in marriage last Saturday to Laurent Lancelotti in the Church of the Nativity. Father Thomas McKeon officiated. The young couple will make their home in Menlo Park. The bride is a prominent official of the local parlor of Native Daughters.

Two new houses are being erected in Linden Towers, the Flood place, that will cost approximately $12,000 each. The owners are residents of San Francisco. It is reported that Mayor Rossi will establish a summer home in the favored locality.

All local real estate men here report a brisk business and now that the election is over they expect a boom in this locality. Many inquiries are made daily for property in Stanford Park and Felton Gables. It is rumored that a chain store concern is looking for a location on the highway. Let the chamber of commerce get busy and locate this firm that will spend hundreds of dollars in wages every week.

Everything is in readiness for the big celebration Saturday under the auspices of the American Legion. The parade is to form at the railroad square and march by way of Valparaiso Ave. to the park where S. M. Shortridge will deliver the oration. After the completion of an elaborate lit-

Bodies Shipped To Des Moines

With the honeymoon of a Des Moines, Ia., couple ended by accidental death from carbon monoxide poisoning, the bodies of the pair, James H. Welch, 22, and his wife, the former Lucille Allen, 19, were sent back to their home city where they were married 10 days ago.

Coroner William F. Crosby announced Sunday that evidence was conclusive that the pair died in their Daly City auto court cabin as the result of leaving on a gas heater in a tightly-closed room. Crosby said that Joseph B. Swim, San Francisco toxicologist, after making blood tests, reported there was no doubt but that carbon monoxide poisoning was the cause of death.

Because the girl's body was more decomposed than that of her husband, Daly City police at first believed she had died first. Because her face, due to decomposition, appeared to have been beaten, they theorized that she might have been killed by her husband who then, in remorse, took his own life, probably by poison.

HIGH TEMPERATURE

But after the making of the blood tests and the performing of autopsies on both bodies, Coroner Crosby came to the conclusion that the decomposition in the girl's body was more advanced due to the fact she was lying close to the heater while her husband had been overcome in the dressing room of the cabin some distance from the stove. Temperature in the room was an estimated 150 degrees when the bodies were found.

The blood on the wall near the girl Crosby said probably was spattered there in her dying moments. One characteristic of carbon monoxide poisoning often is bleeding at the mouth. Neither body bore any erary program those who participated in the parade will enjoy a barbecue in the Menlo Park Hotel gardens. It is expected that 3000 visitors will be here to enjoy the festivities and hospitality of Menlo Park.

A belle of Atherton, well-known in society, is to be married shortly to a Menlo Park young man. The wedding is scheduled for late next month. Particulars will be published later.

Paul Thomas, who works on the S. S. Lurline, and George Schubert of San Francisco, visited the former's aunt, Mrs. W. H. Weeden, Wednesday.

The juniors of the Menlo Park American Legion Auxiliary 443 who sold Forget-Me-Nots for the DARVs were Betty Ellis and Emma Roberta Lindquist. They were assisted by Dora Devol, Gertrude Ellis and Isabelle W. Lindquist, members of the Menlo Park Auxiliary unit.

A series of card parties to be given by the American Legion Auxiliary will be held at the home of Mrs. Carol A. Devol on Santa Cruz Ave. Dates will be announced next week.

Mothers of America Plan S. F. Meeting

Peninsula members of the National Legion of Mothers of America are making plans to attend the organization meeting of the San Francisco chapter tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Polk Hall at the San Francisco Civic Auditorium.

Speakers will explain the purposes of the organization, officers will be elected and plans and policies will be outlined.

The session will provide a rallying point for women of Northern California who are devoted to the organization's creed:

"To oppose the sending of American troops to fight on any foreign soil."

"To support an active program for adequate national defense."

"To oppose all subversive groups, whose object is the destruction of the American form of government."

The Mothers of America is a non-partisan, non-sectarian group concerned only with the premises of its credo. It is open not only to mothers of sons but to all American women who are in accord with its purposes.

evidence of injury either internally or externally, Crosby said the autopsies showed.

Following arrival of the woman's uncle, E. F. Ford, in Daly City, the bodies were transferred to the N. Grey & Co. chapel in San Francisco, where they were prepared for shipment to Des Moines. The uncle took charge of the couple's automobile and possessions and left to drive back to his home.

Another Hurt In Car Smashup

Skull injuries he incurred in an automobile wreck at Middlefield Rd. and Fair Oaks Ln., Atherton, Saturday night proved fatal to Thomas Foster, 47, of San Francisco, who succumbed in the Palo Alto Hospital Monday night.

The remains were removed to the W. C. Laswell Co. parlors in Daly City pending the arranging of funeral services.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Florence Foster.

A. C. Padgett, Honolulu, incurred lacerations on the forehead and face and gravel burns on the body, as well as possible concussion of the skull, and Earl F. Stevens, a mess attendant at the Veterans' Administration Facility in North Palo Alto, faces a charge of driving while under the influence of liquor, following an accident on El Camino Real near Barron Ave., a half mile south of Mayfield, early Tuesday.

Walter J. Chester, R. C. Resident, Dies

Walter James Chester, a resident of Redwood City since 1906, passed away Monday after a period of failing health.

Mr. Chester, who lived at 619 Cassia St., was 76. A former painter, he had been retired for 10 years.

Left to mourn Mr. Chester's passing are his wife, Kate V. Chester; two sisters, Mrs. Florence Andrews and Mrs. Alice Kohnan of England, and two nieces, Mrs. Fostina Mason and Mrs. Adriana Turner of Mill Valley.

Market Ready To Open Here

Having come to the Peninsula after many years in Oregon, where he was a civic leader and public official, Harold R. Slater plans to open his new cash grocery, meat market and liquor store, located at Seventh Ave. and Middlefield Rd., North Fair Oaks, today.

Slater, who will call his store "Slater's Market," has been in Redwood City for the past month supervising the remodeling of the building in which the store is located. He and Mrs. Slater are the parents of two boys, Dale and Robert Slater, both students at Sequoia High School.

The Slaters came here from Roseburg, Ore., where Slater was employed by the Pacific Fruit and Produce Co.

He formerly was with the Talbott & Slater Grocery in Sutherland, Ore., for many years. In that city, he served on the city council and was active in civic affairs.

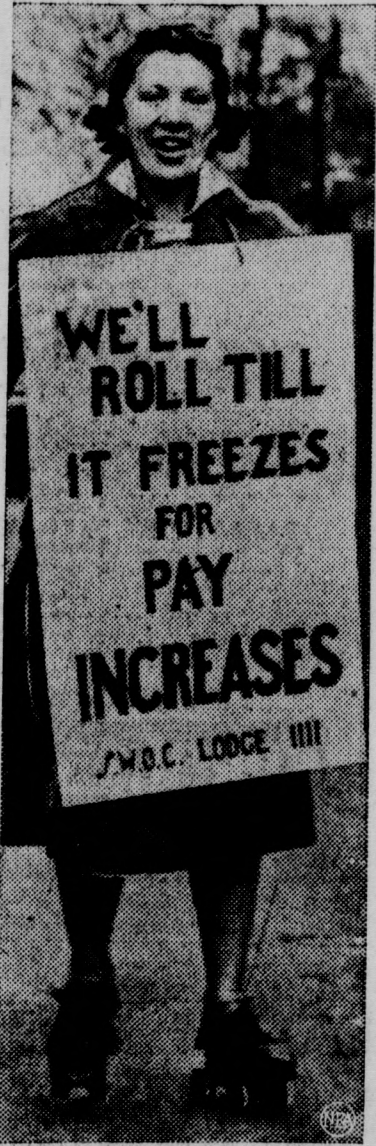

'Speed' La Mar's Death Is Disclosed

Accidental death of Horace E. (Speed) La Mar, former San Francisco automobile dealer, was disclosed in Redwood City today after his divorced wife, Cleo La Mar Flavin of San Francisco, filed petition for letters of administration in his estate. She filed the petition as guardian of La Mar's son, Horace, 16.

According to the petition, La Mar died Oct. 12 at Woolsey, Ark. Mrs. Stella Donovan, attorney for the petitioner, said La Mar had been hunting with some friends and his gun accidentally discharged, the charge striking him in the head. Two friends witnessed the accident, she said.

La Mar was the son of Mrs. Corda Lamum of Washburn, Mo.;

Palo Alto Job Starts Dec. 1

PALO ALTO, Nov. 9 — With award of a construction contract to Paul J. Tyler of Oroville, work is expected to begin on the University Ave. underpass by Dec. 1, city officials said today.

Tyler won the contract on his low bid of $265,960. The job had been estimated at about $300,000.

The job, in which the federal government and the state will co-operate, will consist of reinforced concrete structures, and steel beam track spans.

Tyler's contract is for the underpass beneath the Southern Pacific tracks only.

Considerably more is to be spent by the railroad, about $100,000 on a new station alone. The tracks are to be realigned, being moved about 80 feet westerly of their present location. Landscaping also is outside Tyler's contract.

The work is expected to take about 10 months.

Exchangites Eat Ham, Eggs, Hear Talk

After a session at which members (who usually get steaks) ate ham and eggs served by Grace & Pierre, Exchange Club members Tuesday heard Arthur Paine of Redwood City describe his experiences in "Modern Whaling." Dr. Rollo O. La Berge was chairman.

EQUIPMENT STOLEN
Officers of Hassler Health Farm near Redwood City reported to the sheriff's office yesterday that a quantity of pipe, linoleum, pipe paste, and a 90-pound vise had been stolen from the establishment since Oct. 28.

Conservation Meets Set for Ranchers

Community meetings of ranchers of San Mateo County will be held shortly to elect community agricultural conservation committees and delegates to a county convention, which will elect a county committee of the Agricultural Conservation Association of San Mateo County.

The community committees to be elected consist of a chairman, a vice chairman and one regular member, as well as a first and second alternate member.

The community meetings will feature the general provisions of the 1940 Agricultural Conservation Program. The classification of San Mateo County for 1940 as an "A" county contains provisions that will be of interest to farmers. The elections will follow the explanation of the program.

Farmers and ranchers who are participating in one of the 1939 Agricultural Conservation programs administered by the association or who apply for membership in the association by reason of their legal interest (ownership or tenancy) in a farm or ranch in the county, and intend to participate in one or more of the 1940 Agricultural Conservation programs administered by the association shall be entitled to vote when they sign the reg-

Danielses Hosts At Open House

SAN CARLOS, Nov. 9—Mr. and Mrs. William Daniels of Laurel St. were hosts Sunday at an "open house" in celebration of the successful performance of "The Patsy" given at the city hall Saturday evening by members of the San Carlos Players.

Dancing was enjoyed with music furnished by Fred Rasmussen, Arlington Rishel, Capt. E. J. Kilborne and Tom Kilbourne.

In addition to the players enjoying the hospitality of the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. David Painter, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Laylander.

Peterson, Board Issue Statements On Results of Vote

Statements were issued by both County Manager Peterson and the board of supervisors on the results of Tuesday's election.

Said Peterson: "I greatly appreciate the vote of confidence. I will continue to serve the people of San Mateo County to the best of my ability."

Said the supervisors: "We are glad that the question has been settled in the American way—the democratic way—and by a large majority."

"Our interests are to do the things that are best for the county, and we will continue to do the very best that we can under the system of government with which we are working."

"As elective officers, we are conscious of our responsibility. The people have spoken their desire for continuance of the elective managership, and we will lend every effort to make the system function successfully."

"We also wish to express our thanks to each and every citizen, to the various clubs, and to the press of the county, who took an active part in putting the election issues before the electorate."

Youths Cited For Speeding

A weekend drive on speeders by the State Highway Patrol left seven men and youths holding citations today for charges ranging up to speeding 80 miles an hour.

One local youth, a minor, was tagged for speeding 75 miles an hour between Redwood City and East Palo Alto.

Anthony C. Cain, Santa Clara University student, was cited for speeding 80 miles an hour between Friendly Acres and East Palo Alto.

Robert J. Kirschling, Lowell High School student in San Francisco, was cited for speeding 70 miles an hour.

John A. Zafferano, 20, Menlo Park service station employee, was tagged at 70 miles an hour between Redwood City and San Mateo.

Curran C. Bonham, 23, Richmond, paced at 70 miles an hour between San Mateo and San Carlos.

Irving D. Langendorf, 46, of Langendorf Bakeries, San Jose, was arrested for 70 miles an hour

Lunt and Fontaine In Shakespear Play

Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontaine will bring to San Francisco the "merriest and maddest masquerade ever devised" when they present their own impish conception of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Curran Theater, San Francisco, for two weeks beginning Monday.

Involved will be a score of good equity actors and a number of midgets, acrobats, horses (of a sort), hounds (of a kind), clowns (dressed in the wool), singers, dancers and musicians, all offered in glittering habiliments.

Critics have voiced approval of this "Shrew," saying that those who never saw any fun in the Bard of Avon before are going to see it now. The Lunts first produced a "Shrew" four years ago and it was hailed as having given Shakespeare a much needed "shot in the arm," but that was a mild "Shrew" compared with this 1939-40 edition. The famous co-stars have gone the limit in "rough housing" the

Tully Knoles Here Sunday

As regularly as Armistice Day arrives, Dr. Tully C. Knoles, president of the College of the Pacific, arrives in Redwood City to preach the anniversary sermon at the First Methodist Church.

This year will be no exception, for Dr. Knoles, widely-known speaker and educator, will be in Redwood City again Sunday—for the 14th successive year. He dedicated the church edifice at the Broadway-Brewster Ave. intersection and each year returns to conduct the anniversary service.

The timely topic chosen by Dr. Knoles for his sermon at the 11 a. m. service is "America and Peace."

Dr. Samuel J. Chaney, church pastor, reported that Sunday would be a "double feature," for in the evening, Rev. Mahlon B. Young of Oakland, a former pastor of the church, will speak on "The Challenge of Our Choices." Following this service, which begins at 7:45, a social hour will be enjoyed. Refreshments will be served by the Ladies Aid. Church members are inviting their friends and the public to both services.

MORE LUMBER RECEIVED
Bringing total amount of lumber left at the Port of Redwood City in 10 days to almost 2,000,000 feet, the steamer Eureka deposited a cargo of 350,000 feet at the local harbor over the weekend, Port Manager Leslie Rudy reported.

ELSIE'S KNEES

The Saga of Elsie's Knees has come to a happy ending at the University of Nevada—the dean of women reversed her stand that the kilts would have to be made into a skirt to cover the drum major's knees, and agreed to let Miss Crabtree carry on in the customary manner.

the Lions Club last night, held at Sodini's Tavern.

Warning Given Local Youths

Less than 48 hours after Redwood City's city council had directed its police department to enforce strictly the new bicycle ordinance for fear some boy or girl would be injured through its violation, a local youngster was hurt last night in an accident directly due to the fact he had no headlight on his bike, according to the officer who witnessed the mishap.

One of the rules set forth in the recently adopted ordinance is that bicycles ridden at night must have a headlight and a taillight or reflector.

Injured was Eugene Fitzpatrick, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Fitzpatrick of 447 Alameda de las Pulgas.

JUST AT DUSK

He was pedaling east on Broadway just at dusk when his bike collided with the rear end of the machine of William F. Boos of San Carlos, former Sequoia High School instructor who now operates a garage at Oakland.

Policeman James L. Flynn Jr., who was watching the heavy evening traffic on Broadway, had just given Boos a signal to back out from the curb, after looking to make sure no one was coming.

"Mr. Boos asked for clearance," Flynn explained. "I stepped into the street, and saw no one coming. But just as I signalled and the autoist backed out, the boy loomed up."

"If he had had a light on his bicycle, I would have seen him and would not have directed the motorist to back out."

HITS REAR BUMPER

The boy's cycle collided with the rear bumper of the Boos car. Flynn ran to him just as he hit, and the boy fell into the officer's arms.

The youngster, a student at Mt. Carmel School, suffered severe bruises of his right leg when it struck the car's bumper, but incurred no broken bones. After emergency treatment he was taken to his home.

Officer Flynn exonerated Boos and said that no charges would be preferred against the boy for riding his bicycle without a light. The boy was on the way to the city library at the time, he told the officer.

Since Monday night, police have been warning youngsters they must obey the city law as well as all traffic laws. Riding on sidewalks is prohibited, as is hanging onto a moving vehicle or riding double on a bicycle built for only one person.

FRUIT SALAD DRESSING
Vary French dressing with fruit juices. For instance, a mixture of lime, lemon and orange, or grapefruit, lemon and pineapple, mixed with French dressing, gives a delightful new flavor to any fruit salad combination.

Anderson, Home, Thinks Act O. K.

Convinced that the nation's new neutrality act is "a pretty good insurance policy to keep us out of war," Congressman John Z. (Jack) Anderson was back at his home at San Juan Bautista, San Benito County, today, after helping the special session of Congress adopt the measure.

Declaring there is no valid reason why the U.S. should become involved in the war, the congressman emphasized that no sacrifice is too great to keep us out of it.

"One of these sacrifices," he said, "will be the keeping of our ships out of the danger zones. It means the giving up of our traditional policy of freedom of the seas, because we don't believe it is worth fighting for at this time."

The fatalistic attitude of some American citizens in regard to the U.S. becoming drawn into the war was sharply criticized by the representative.

"I am glad to say," he said, "this is by no means the sentiment of Congress. Congress is opposed to anything that will tend to involve us."

"Coyote wells," in American desert parlance, means natural depressions in the rock which catch and hold rain water.

Peace Leader, Former San Mateo, Passes

Peninsula and San Francisco art circles and San Mateo County residents interested in Moral Re-armament and other peace movements heard with sorrow today that Mrs. Gene Haley Clewe had passed away at Oroville.

Up to last week, she had done publicity and other work for the San Mateo County Peace Council. She was a former resident of San Mateo and had lived there for years before moving to Oroville, where her husband, Haley Clewe, is an attorney.

QUICK PICK-UP DESSERT

Stale pound cake sliced thin and toasted in the electric toaster or browned under the broiler flame and covered with a soft custard, fruit sauce, or fruit and lightly whipped cream is a fine quick pick-up dessert.
